"Success in the knowledge economy comes to those who know themselves—their strengths, their values and how to best perform." ~Peter Drucker

Ninety-five percent of people know more about the world outside of themselves than within. The key to personal peak performance and deep satisfaction is self-mastery.

Access the best of yourself without long hours of guessing or trial and error efforts. In 20 minutes you can experience answers to questions that you may have sought for a lifetime.

To support you and the work you are doing to know yourself during this time of transition, I offer you this proprietary self-evaluation value intelligence inventory that takes about 20 minutes to fill out. Plus, you'll receive a 1- hour consultation that puts the keys from the results in your hands. We can do this by phone. It's so easy. This work compliments whatever else you may be doing in therapy, coaching or personal development or relationship or job searching.

I'm Skye Hirst, PhD and in my 30 years of personal and executive coaching, I find this to be one of the most exciting and useful tools I've ever seen for getting to the specific needs of my clients quickly and for effectively helping them accomplish their dreams, goals and to experience fulfillment.

Oprah talks of finding your best life and purpose for your life. This process will do just that plus more in that you'll find meaning and satisfaction at the most fundamental levels, enabling you to feel fulfilled with whatever choices life serves you. This work helps you learn your strengths, blind spots and most of all what is your unique focus for being, not doing, but being. I look forward to meeting you and introducing you to the amazing gifts available to you right now within your unique being.

This self-evaluation tool gives you insight into your particular way of thinking and valuing... your unique structure of value (the road map and filtration system you use to think, evaluate and make decisions that result in your personality, individual perceptions and decisions). Simply put, your structure of value is how you think. Research shows there is a relationship between how we think and our health, sense of well-being, capacity for relationship building and satisfaction in our work and personal life.

In just 20 minutes, you'll have the key in your hands to know just what areas of your valuing processes are keeping you locked in behaviors you'd like to change, plus you'll know your strengths for finding effective action in all areas of your life. This Hartman Value Inventory process can cost as much as $500 for testing, results and 1 hour of consultation on results. I offer all this today to you for $100, this one time opportunity.
